This Election Law Index is an electronic resource maintained by legal staff at the N.C. State Board of Elections & Ethics Enforcement. Its content is provided for general informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. The agency does not warrant that content is comprehensive or current. In order to link to the most current version of the law, federal statutes are linked to Cornell University Law School's Legal Information Institute, a non-profit group that maintains a text directory of federal laws. The official online source of federal law is the U.S. Government Printing Office's Federal Digital System \(FDsys\). Users may search for federal laws by citation, but these searches link to a specific edition of a law, in PDF format as displayed in the printed source.

State statutes and citations to the administrative code are linked to the websites maintained by the North Carolina General Assembly or the North Carolina Office of Administrative Hearings. However, the online text version of any law is not official and should not be solely relied upon without further verification.
